

Phefelia H. Nez

Best Friends Scholarship

presented in collaboration with Southern Utah University

Best Friends Animal Society (BFAS) is offering scholarship opportunities for ALL members of the Navajo Nation, as well as those working to improve the state of Animal Welfare in the Navajo Nation. These opportunities include four scholarships for online animal services professional development courses.

Animal services professional development offerings

Four scholarships each year for the following:

1. Introduction to Animal Services ($399 value)

- Upon successful completion, 3 credits can be applied toward SUU degrees

2. Contemporary Animal Services Fundamentals Certificate, which includes the following microcredential courses ($299 value each)

- Finding Success in Animal Services
- Dog Lifesaving Fundamentals
- Cat Lifesaving Fundamentals
 - Upon successful completion of all three courses, 3 credits can be applied toward SUU degrees
 - Participants may also be eligible for a scholarship opportunity toward a bachelor's degree program at SUU

2025 Key Dates

August 1

- Scholarship applications open

December 1

- Scholarship applications deadline

December 15

- Scholarship awards announced

Apply online at NavajoNationPets.com/Scholarships

Criteria for annual scholarship opportunities

- Scholarship recipients will receive automatic acceptance to Southern Utah University upon award of scholarship and after completing a brief application.
- Agree to and sign a Best Friends Animal Society scholarship/tuition waiver agreement.